

Launch of Vietnam Today on Singtel TV and CAST

What is Vietnam Today?

From 7 August 2026, Singtel will add Vietnam Today, Vietnam's international English-language television channel, to its suite of entertainment offerings, giving TV and CAST customers access to trusted news and a broader perspective on Vietnam.

Operated by Vietnam Television (VTV), the national broadcaster of Vietnam, Vietnam Today offers a comprehensive range of programming, including news and current affairs, business and investment, culture, travel, cuisine, lifestyle, documentaries and in-depth features that showcase a modern, dynamic and globally connected Vietnam.

Through Vietnam Today, Singtel TV customers can stay up to date with the latest developments in Vietnam while discovering the country's rich cultural heritage, vibrant destinations and inspiring stories about its people, innovation and continued development.

The addition of Vietnam Today Channel reflects Singtel's ongoing commitment to providing customers with a diverse portfolio of high-quality international content. It also broadens access to reliable news and insights from Vietnam and Southeast Asia at a time when the partnership between Singapore and Vietnam continues to deepen across trade, investment, tourism and people-to-people exchanges.

How can I watch Vietnam Today?

You can watch Vietnam Today on Singtel TV (Channels 15 and 160) or on the CAST app.

If you're subscribed to one of our latest Singtel TV Packs, Vietnam Today is included at no extra cost as part of your complimentary channels*.

From 7 August to 6 September 2026, eligible Singtel TV subscribers and CAST app users can also enjoy a free preview of Vietnam Today.

*Vietnam Today is available on our latest Singtel TV Packs, which are supported on our latest-generation Singtel TV box. Want to enjoy Vietnam Today? Explore our latest TV Packs and upgrade options here.
